Jeffer London
STIMULATING IDEAS & BUILDING FUTURES

EVENT MODERATOR

Jeffer London is a conversation starter. He helps groups to stimulate ideas and build futures. Are you looking for a host who works worldwide to animate strategic meetings? (boards, top teams, leadership summits, retreats) or for interactive events for very large audiences? (community building, dialogue, networking, away days, inclusive sharing, crowd sourcing, teambuilding.)

ENGAGEMENT MAKER

Jeffer works at the heart of an organization – its people. He has been instrumental in leading teams, coaching executives, and setting up systems that make positive change happen through people-intense events. From the lunchroom to the boardroom, Jeffer facilitates dialogue to align strategies, explore opportunities, and build engagement. The trademark of Jeffer’s involvement is meaning, momentum & memories.

ORGANIZATIONAL FACILITATOR

Jeffer builds connections in a systemic approach that brings people together. If you want to develop people or align an organization, Jeffer is your man. He is the go-to person for executives seeking advice on the human element of strategies and plans. Whether you need to unite communities, build synergy, or create engagement, Jeffer is your natural partner.

PUBLIC SPEAKER

Jeffer gets the vote for best conference event. Participants love the interactivity, relevance, and sense-making. His track record with Deloitte, the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL), Meeting Planners International (MPI), and the International Association of Facilitators (IAF), combined with his heritage in design, offers audiences a mix of art and business.

TEAM BUILDER

Raised in America, Jeffer had lived in Japan, Spain, and Italy before settling in Belgium in 1995. He has led projects in most major European capitals as well as in Asia and the United States. Wherever your people are coming from, we can bring them into conversation.
